

QUICK FACTS - SCHOLARSHIP USAGE

Scholarship funds can be used at the following in-person or online educational institutions:

- a. Universities
- b. Colleges
- c. Business Schools
- d. Technical Schools
- e. Trade Schools
- f. Vocational Schools

Scholarship funds may be used for the following:

- a. Tuition/fees
- b. On-campus meal plans
- c. On- and off-campus housing
- d. Textbooks
- e. Required class supplies, including pens, paper and notebooks
- f. Equipment necessary for completion of a course or program, including a laptop or computer

Portal Requests

Scholarship fund disbursements made through the SMART Portal are paid directly to the secondary educational institution. You will need work with the school to utilize your SMART scholarship funds.

No FAFSA Code?

Please send an email to smart@bowl.com with contact information on the program, including the program's website. We will review it and provide you with a code should it meet the requirements.

Other Requests

SMART scholarship funds can be used for the following:

1. Reimbursement for needed supplies, such as books and computer
2. Off-campus housing paid directly to the provider
3. Student loan paid directly to the loan company

Click here for more information regarding the options listed above.

Transferring of Scholarships

Scholarship funds that have not yet expired are eligible to be transferred to a family member by a recipient who is 21 years of age or older. The family member must have had at least four years of USBC bowling history (does not have to be consecutive) and agree to the transfer. The family member must use the funds within eight years of their high school graduation.

Please see the SMART Policy Manual for more details regarding the transferring of scholarships.

NOTE: The use of SMART scholarship funds may be against the regulations of your school or sport governing body. It is your responsibility to ensure compliance with all regulations if you are a student-athlete or potential student-athlete. Click here for the waiver form.